FLASH KOREA - PEACE CAMPS FOR YOUTH FLASH

July 2 - 9 and 23 - 30, 2011

For the 60th Anniversaries of the Korean War, the ROK Government started this special program for the Grandchildren of Korean War Veterans. The primary purpose of the "Peace Camps" is to:

- * Strengthen cooperation with young generations.
- * Deepen the understanding of the Korean War, and its effect on the world.
- * Provide an opportunity for younger generations to experience Korea, and its people.

Eligibility is simple:

- * Grandchildren of Korean War Veterans attending college/universities
- * Those who have NOT visited Korea before, on a funded program.

Financial support:

- * All expenses paid in Korea. (Six (6) Nights - Seven (7) Days)
(Hotel, Meals & Ground Transportation)
- * 50 % Roundtrip Group Airfare, Economy - Both Domestic and International.

Special Note: The 2011 quotas and dates just arrived from Korea. Based on experience, this is a very special program for our grandchildren and the slots will go fast since only (15) quotas are open per date. If you're interested you MUST Call or Email us ASAP for a Brochure and Application.
